AMENDMENT TO TECHNOLOGY LICENSE AGREEMENT

This amendment ("Amendment") is entered into on December 8, 2014 ("Signing Date") and serves to amend the Technology License Agreement (the "Agreement") between Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V. (now: Koninklijke Philips N.V.) ("Philips"), and Ultra-D Cooperative U.A. ("ULTRA-D"), dated December 8, 2011.

Philips and ULTRA-D are also referred to individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties".

Any capitalized term used in this Amendment shall have the same meaning as ascribed to it in the Agreement.

RECITALS

- A. The Parties each dispute each other's position with regard to the Agreement.
- B. The Parties wish to settle their disagreement and wish to amend the Agreement as set forth in this Amendment, subject to the provisions hereof.

A new clause 2.15 is hereby added to the Agreement, to read as follows:

2.15 (a) Parallel License Arrangements.

The Parties both acknowledge that for certain applications and uses of 3D technology, third party users may need to obtain a license under the Intellectual Property Rights related to 3D display technology, conversion and rendering technology and 3D video format of ULTRA-D ("ULTRA-D Technology") and under intellectual property rights related to 3D display technology of Philips ("Philips Technology"). The Parties both confirm their willingness to offer licenses under said respective intellectual property rights with respect to such applications and uses to third party users, on reasonable conditions.

In the event that ULTRA-D becomes engaged in negotiations with any third party regarding a license in respect of such applications and uses and it believes that the third party may also be using Philips Technology, it will notify Philips in writing about such third party. Philips may give its consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, to ULTRA-D to point out to such third party that Philips also holds intellectual property rights relevant for such applications and uses.

After Signing Date, both Parties will agree upon a list of third parties to whom ULTRA-D will offer its products (including the Super Drive Train) and / or its license under the ULTRA-D Technology; and in any such offers ULTRA-D shall refer to the Philips Technology. It is intended to agree upon the list within 30 days after Signing Date. The list will be added as Schedule A – part II of this Amendment and may be amended from time to time.

Subsequently, Philips shall provide its standard license terms and conditions to ULTRA-D, thereby enabling ULTRA-D to show this to prospective licensees with whom ULTRA-D is engaged in license negotiations in respect to ULTRA-D Technology. ULTRA-D shall treat Philips' license terms and conditions as confidential information and ULTRA-D represents that the prospective licensee shall do the same. In the event the prospective licensee wishes to conclude parallel license arrangements with both ULTRA-D and Philips, ULTRA-D and Philips shall both negotiate a separate license with such third party. For the avoidance of doubt, all licenses under the Philips Technology will be negotiated between Philips and the prospective licensee. The conclusion and execution of such license agreement is the responsibility of Philips.

The Parties acknowledge that third parties are free to approach Philips concerning a license under the Philips Technology and/or Dolby concerning a license under the Dolby3D Technology directly. However, in the event that a third party is already engaged in negotiations relating to parallel license arrangements with both ULTRA-D and Philips, Philips will not discourage and will also ask Dolby not to discourage such third party from concluding a license agreement with ULTRA-D. In the event that either Party determines that parallel license arrangements are no longer a viable business option, that Party has the right to terminate the parallel license arrangements and has the right to approach the third party separately concerning a license under its technology. Such Party shall inform the other Party in writing about such termination and upon such termination, such third party will be removed from Schedule A part II.

2.15(b) Support.

In the event a third party has obtained a separate technology license from both ULTRA-D and Philips, ULTRA-D shall provide technical support to such third party as necessary and as agreed between ULTRA-D and such third party. Philips shall not provide such technical support, unless ULTRA-D and Philips agree otherwise.

2.15(c) Super Drive Train License.

In the event that a third party wishes to conclude parallel license arrangements with ULTRA-D and Philips, ULTRA-D shall develop a conversion and rendering implementation ("Super Drive Train"), consisting of ULTRA-D algorithms, that shall be compatible with the Dolby3D format. The Super Drive Train shall be included in the ULTRA-D Technology as licensed to third parties which are engaged in parallel license agreement with both ULTRA-D and Philips.

In the event that a third party, which is engaged in parallel license arrangements with both ULTRA-D and Philips, informs ULTRA-D that it is not willing to accept a drive train which is compatible with the Dolby3D format, Philips may, at its sole discretion and without prejudice to its prior contractual commitments, decide to proceed with the parallel license arrangements excluding the Dolby3D format and to offer a license under the Philips Technology; such decision to proceed not to be withheld unreasonably.

Schedule F to the Agreement is hereby amended and shall now read as:

Pursuant to Section 4.1, a series of non-refundable, non-recoupable payments amounting to a total of EUR 2,500,000 (two million and five hundred thousand Euros) shall be paid by ULTRA-D to Philips allocated as twenty percent (20%) for each three year segment ("Segment") of the fifteen (15) year term as set forth in section 5.1 of the Agreement.

It is confirmed that prior to the Signing Date, ULTRA-D has already made payments to an amount that totals EUR 500,000 (five hundred thousand Euros) plus 19% VAT amounting to EUR 595,000 (five hundred and ninety-five thousand Euros).

ULTRA-D shall pay the remaining amount of EUR 2,000,000 (two million Euros) it allocates for the second through fifth Segments in accordance with the schedule set forth below:

[a] Payment of EURO 1,000,000 (one million Euros), which will be payable as follows:

- [a1] EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) within 30 days after payment of the balance of the Interest as defined below ;
- [a2] EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) within 30 days after payment a1;
- [a3] EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) within 30 days after payment a2; and
- [a4] EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) within 30 days after payment a3.

[b] Payment of EUR 1,000,000 (one million Euros) after commencement of Production by ULTRA-D (as defined below), which will be payable as follows

- [b1] EUR 250,000 within 30 days after commencement of Production;
- [b2] EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) within 30 days after payment b1;
- [b3] EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) within 30 days after payment b2; and
- [b4] EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) within 30 days after payment b3.

For the purposes of this Amendment, "Production" shall mean sale with delivery of an aggregate of sixty five thousand (65,000) units of an ULTRA-D Technology-based 3D displays. Free of charge samples with sales value of 0 (zero) euro shall be excluded from the aggregated volume.

Upon signature of this Amendment, Philips will cancel the previously issued invoices numbered 201290194, 201390138, and 201390186 and issue a credit invoice to ULTRA-D.

For each of the new payments outlined above, Philips will issue an invoice to ULTRA-D excluding VAT.

Further arrangements:

Payment of Interest. By way of compromise as regards to Philips' claim for interest under the Agreement on the outstanding amount of EUR 2,000,000 (two million Euros), the Parties agree on a payment by ULTRA-D to Philips of the sum of EUR 250,000 (two hundred fifty thousand Euros) ("Interest") of which EUR 100,000 has been received by Philips at Signing Date. ULTRA-D agrees to pay the balance of Interest within 10 days after the Signing Date. The payment of Interest shall not include VAT. The payment of the Interest by ULTRA-D shall not be construed as an acknowledgement by ULTRA-D, whether implied or otherwise, of any breach under the Agreement.

Remedies. In the event ULTRA-D fails to comply with any payment by any of the dates set forth in Schedule F, this Amendment shall automatically become null and void. Without prejudice to any other remedy Philips may be lawfully entitled to, Philips shall be entitled to any and all remedies Philips may have under the Agreement.

Assignment. Philips hereby provides consent, under Section 11, specifically 11.1 of the Agreement, to the assignment of the entire Agreement and this entire Amendment from ULTRA-D to ULTRA-D Ventures, C.V. a company created under the laws of Curacao with a principal registered office at Abraham de Veerstraat #2, Curacao (to registered agent Vistra (Curacao), N.V.), which company has been and continues to be an Affiliate of ULTRA-D from the outset of the Agreement. Hereafter, all references in the Agreement and this Amendment to "ULTRA-D" shall refer to ULTRA-D Ventures, CV and no longer ULTRA-D Cooperative U.A. By its signature below, ULTRA-D Ventures, CV will be bound by the rights and obligations of ULTRA-D in the Agreement and amendments thereto including this Amendment. Other than such assignment as specified no further assignments are permitted without the written consent of Philips as provided in Section 11.1 of the Agreement. A separate writing will also confirm such assignment.

Royalties. The Parties hereby agree to amend the royalty rates as set out in Schedule D of the Agreement. Schedule D of the Agreement shall now read as attached to this Amendment.

Added to Section 4.2 of the Agreement shall be:

In the event that ULTRA-D sells Licensed Products to a third party that already holds a royalty-bearing license under the Licensed Technology, ULTRA-D shall request Philips in writing to confirm whether such third party already holds a license under the Licensed Technology and whether the Licensed Products are covered by that license. In the event Philips confirms that the third party has a royalty bearing license under the Licensed Technology covering the Licensed Products, the sales of such Licensed Products from ULTRA-D to that specific third party shall not be royalty bearing under this Agreement as long as the license agreement between the third party and Philips exists. For avoidance of doubt: ULTRA-D shall report on all Licensed Products sold and/or otherwise disposed of to third parties having a royalty bearing license under the Licensed Technology from Philips in accordance with Section 4.2.

Two years after Signing Date, Parties will convene to review whether it is appropriate to adjust the royalty rates as described in Schedule D.

Licensed Patents. The Parties hereby agree to amend the patent list as set out in Schedule B of the Agreement. Schedule B of the Agreement shall now read as attached to this Amendment.

Sale of Licensed Patents. In the event that Philips decides to sell the Licensed Patents ("Sale"), it shall inform ULTRA-D in writing and shall provide ULTRA-D with written information that is relevant to evaluate such sale (such relevant information hereinafter called "Sale Information"). Philips may also inform other third parties about such sale. ULTRA-D shall have the option to submit an offer to acquire the Licensed Patents ("Option"), such Option to be exercised by written notice to Philips within fourteen (14) business days after receipt of Philips' written Sale Information. If ULTRA-D exercise its Option to submit an offer within such fourteen (14) business days, Philips shall consider the offer made by ULTRA-D in reasonable comparison to the offers made by third parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (a) Sale Information shall contain no less information than given to third parties about the sale and (b) the time to exercise the Option shall be a minimum of fourteen (14) business days as provided but in no event be less than the time given to third parties to submit an offer or reoffer.
